HOCKEY STINGERS BUSY

The Concordia Stingers hockey team is enjoying a ten day rest, but when it gets back into action, the team will be busy. The Stingers open a four-game in four-day stint Wednesday, November 24th with a game in Trois-Rivieres against U.Q.T.R.. The following evening at 7:30 p.m. Concordia will visit the Clarkson College Golden Knights in Potsdam, New York. The Stingers then return home for a Friday evening game (7:30 p.m.) with Laval, before going against the McGill Redmen the next night at McGill, also at 7:30 p.m..

The Stingers will have two days off and then host the Ottawa Gee-Gees on Tuesday, November 30th at 7:30 p.m. at the Concordia Athletic Complex.

In the individual scoring race, Gilles Hébert continues to lead the team with 8 goals and 14 assists for 22 points after 12 games. Kelly Kavic and Claude L'Abbé, who scored seven times in the last two games, share the goal-scoring lead with Hébert, all with 8 goals.

Stephané Héon, who has played all but one of the Stinger games to date, has allowed 34 goals against for an average of 3.24. Back-up man Randy Duncan recorded a shut-out in his only start.
